A WORD TO GIRLS AND BOYS. Good Manners .- Young friends are you polite, genteel, well behaved every where? at all times? in all societies? Good breeding is a fortune already made-an independen fortune. Courtesy, kindness, a noble digniused in the Bible, appendix of new words, pro- fied deportment paves the way to eminence stations of honor, wealth, respectability, to glory imperishable. kind and polite to your parents, brothers and sisters, your superiors and inferiors. See that every thought, every word and action bear their impress of a sweet, gentle, affable courtesy. Study to make everybody happy True politeness is benevolence and true benevolence is politeness. When these habits of courtesy or good behavior are thus acquired at home, exhibited on all occasions they become household words, easy, familiar as life. Then, when you go abroad, mingle in society, the high, the low, the rich, the poor, you are duly prepared. Politeness of manners is uppermost; it flows out spontaneous-

ly. Therefore begin at home, early as the dawning life .- An excellent writer touching on this question of good manners, says: "Young folks should be mannerly. But how to be is the question. Many a good boy and girl feel that they cannot behave to soil themselves in the presence of company. They are awkward, clownish, rough. They feel timid, bashful and self-distrustful the moment in company. There is but one way to go over this feeling and acquire graceful and easy manners; that is, to do the best they can all the time, at home as well as abroad. Good manners are not learned so much as acquired by habit. They grow upon us by use We must be courteous, agreeable, civil, kind gentlemanly and and womanly at home, and then it will become a kind of second nature to be so everywhere. A coarse, rough man-SERMONS FOR THE MILLION. - Spurgeon's latest | ner at home begets a roughness which we cannot lay off, if we try, when we go among strangers. The most agreeable people we have ever known in company are those that are perfectly agreeable at home. Home is the school for all the best things. Young friends, you hear this? Will you heed it? - Golden Rule. NATURE'S SONG IN THE NIGHT. Night hath its songs. Have you never stood by the sea at night and heard the pelbles sing and the waves chant God's glories? Or have you never risen from your couch and thrown up the window of your chamber and listened? Listened to what? Silence, save now and then a murmuring sound, which seems sweet music then. And have you not fancied that you heard the harp of God playing in Heaven? Did you not conceive that you stars, that those eyes of God, looking down on you, were also mouths of song—that every star was singing God's glory, singing as it shone its Almighty Maker, and his lawful, well-deserved praise? Night hath its songs: we do not need much poetry in our spirit to catch the song of night, and hear the spheres as they chant praises which are loud to the heart, though they be silent to the ear-the praise of the mighty God, who bears up the unpillared arch of Heaven, and moves the stars in their courses. DRY GOODS, &c. $10,000 WORTH OF GOODS AT COST WE have a great variety of GOODS, consist-ing of FANCY SILKS and SILK ROBES
